Sarah Willoughby
Infertility Saved My Life

Thursday 13 February 2025
6pm | Frankston

Infertility Saved My Life shares the wisdom and insight that enabled Sarah Willoughby to complete her family and begin a heart-centred life and business. Sarah is dedicated to breaking the silence surrounding infertility and miscarriage, offering invaluable support to those still awaiting the joy of welcoming a baby into their lives.

Nicola Marsh
Where the Heart Is

Monday 17 February 2025
6pm | Frankston

Home is where the heart is and for one country girl, she'll do whatever it takes to save it... Mila Hayes will do anything to keep her family's farm, including marrying the wrong man. But when the groom backs out at the last minute, and Sawyer Mann, her teen crush and her brother's best friend, witnesses her humiliation, Mila's hopes plummet.

Bo Kitty
Always Eat the Weird Stuff

Thursday 20 February 2025
6pm | Frankston

Always Eat The Weird Stuff is full of heavily inked flash fiction about finding yourself, even stuck in transit. From underground raves to solo travels and the eclectic streets and alleys of Melbourne, these tight prose chapters explore themes of risk taking, truth-seeking, love, and the quest for belonging.

Kylie Ladd
The Mix-Up

Thursday 27 February 2025
6pm | Frankston

A spectacularly crafted story, The Mix-Up is the powder-keg of one terrible mistake and two devastated families. An IVF mix-up leaves two children wondering who they really are and where they belong. And four devastated parents grappling with love and loss. A thought-provoking account of harmony and schism; joy and betrayal.

What's New at Frankston City Libraries

Monash University Social Worker Clinic Now Available at Frankston Library

Free social work services provided by postgraduate students, offering crucial support to the local community

The Monash University Social Work Clinic is now offering free services at the Frankston Library. Staffed by postgraduate students enrolled in the Master of Social Work program at Monash University, the clinic provides confidential face-to-face counselling, tele-health support, and case management.

All students are supervised by qualified social work professionals. Services at the clinic are confidential and adhere to the Australian Association of Social Workers (AASW) Code of Ethics and practice standards.

The clinic offers support with a range of issues including:

- Advocacy and support
- Immigration, housing, and Centrelink forms
- Court reports and hearings
- Mental health, grief, and relationship support
- Parenting and social isolation

To access the service, visit the Frankston Library and speak with a librarian at Frankston Library about being referred to the service, or contact the clinic directly at:

Phone: 0492 192 884

Email: socialworkclinic@monash.edu

This free service is designed to assist the local community with high-quality social work support.
